

Image not found or type unknown

Deprivation of the Property Right in Georgia

Within the Human Rights Week GYLA organized the round table: “Right to Property in Georgia”.

Report prepared by GYLA which reviews international obligations undertaken by the state and submits critical analysis of the applicable legislation were submitted at the presentation.

Specific cases of deprivation of property, on which GYLA lawyers are working, were discussed at the meeting. At the end of the presentation discussion was arranged.