

Image not found or type unknown

GYLA applies to the public broadcaster and demands live transmission of hearing of Girgvliani's case on TV

Today, on June 29 the Georgian Young Lawyers' Association send a letter to the director general of the public broadcaster requesting live transmission of the hearing of Sandro Girgvliani's case.

According to articles 16, paragraph c) of the Georgian law on public broadcaster, public broadcaster should guarantee timely and comprehensive submission of information to the audience on the ongoing events in Georgia."

Since public interest towards the hearing is great and the fact has great resonance, transmitting of the hearing in live is of utmost importance. It will assist to raising of public trust to impartiality and fairness of judiciary in Georgia.