

Image not found or type unknown

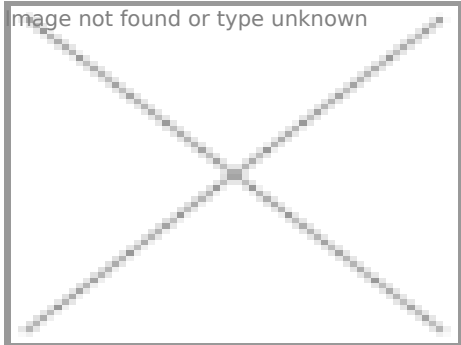

Tournament in parliamentary debates goes on

On 7th of May 1/8 and 1/4 finals of parliamentary debates were held in GYLA. Students of the Legal Education Promotion Fund who have passed the selection stage of tournament participated in debates.

Debates in quarterfinal were held on the following resolutions:

Image not found or type unknown

- This chamber believes that an ombudsman is an effective mechanism to protect people's rights;
- This chamber believes that: right of property is inviolable;
- This chamber believes that the government and religion should be segregated.

Quarterfinal groups

Maia Titberidze (Introduction of law)

Tamar Gongadze

Nino Sarishvili (International law)

Tamar Daushvili

Khatuna Khelidze (Criminal law)

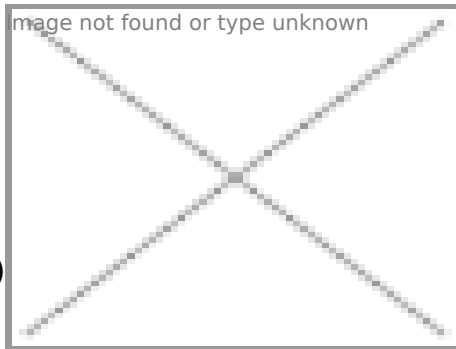

საქართველოს ახალგაზრდა იურისტთა ასოციაცია GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION

Oliko Giorgadze

Eliso Chabrava (Civil law)

Vanda Jejelava

Archil Nizcharadze (Introduction of law)

Beso Ghonghadze

Nino Gobronidze (Constitutional law)

Tamar Chugoshvili

Lana Iagvilava (Criminal law)

Giorgi Chidrashvili

Nino Zubitashvili (Introduction of law)

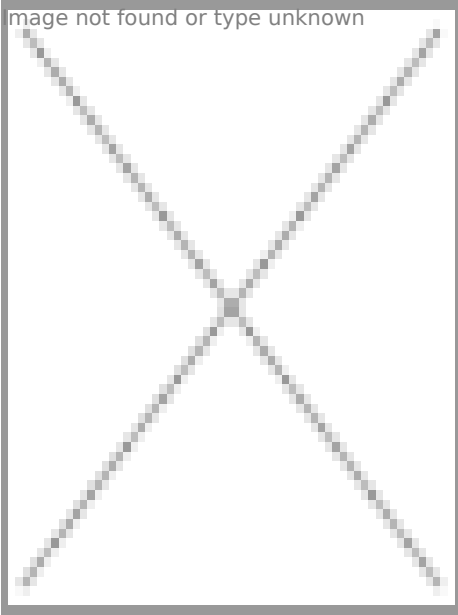

Mariam Davitnidze

Debates in quarterfinal were held on the following resolutions:

- This chamber believes that government should not guarantee free legal aid

Semi-final groups:

საქართველოს ახალგაზრდა იურისტთა ასოციაცია GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION

Tamar Daushvili

Eliso Chabrava (Civil law)

Vanda Jejelava

Nino Gobrondize (Constitutional law)

Tamar Chugoshvili

Nino Zubitashvili (Introduction of law)

Mariam Davitnidze