

საქართველოს ახალგაზრდა იურისტთა ასოციაცია GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION

GYLA's Successful Litigation in 2017

In 2017, the Georgian Young Lawyers' Association provided free legal aid to 35 334 individuals and successfully litigated 121 cases, including 6 before the Constitutional Court, 4 before the European Court of Human Rights. GYLA continues to provide legal services in over 300 cases.

საქართველოს ახალგაზრდა იურისტთა ასოციაცია GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION

GYLA Successfully Litigated 121 Cases in 2017

In 2017, the Georgian Young Lawyers' Association provided free legal aid to 35 334 individuals, including legal aid obtained:

Online by 614 individuals

Over the telephone by 7854 individuals

During face-to-face meetings with lawyers
by 22 788 individuals

Legal documents were prepared for 4078 individuals

During field visits in villages and cities across Georgia, GYLA provided more than 3000 group and individual consultations

Image not found or type unknown

საქართველოს ახალგაზრდა იურისტთა ასოციაცია GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION

10 most common types of matters in which GYLA provided legal aid in 2017 include:

- Explanation of procedural issues in civil administrative and criminal matters

- Family law (ordering alimony, divorce, restricting parental rights, etc.)

- Law of obligations (online loans, reducing the amount of penalty, etc.)

- Public and private sector employee rights

- Matters related to inheritance

- Property rights, privatization

- Administrative offences

- Social matters (social assistance, pension, etc.)

- Violence against women and Domestic violence

- Issues Related to the Enforcement

Full report ↓

საქართველოს ახალგაზრდა იურისტთა ასოციაცია GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION

