

Image not found or type unknown

The Georgian Young Lawyers' Association in cooperation with the International Labor Organization (ILO) arranged two day training dedicated to the Human Trafficking.

Training was hosted by the Kristin Dadey expert from the International Organization for Migration.

Participants were representatives of different NGOs, advocates working in the field of criminal law and consultants. State Fund for Protection and Assistance for Victims/Statutory Victims of Trafficking, and its mobile group.

Mainly discussed issues: Guidelines for legal aid providers, regarding the treatment of Human Trafficking, Guidelines and Recommendations in Assisting Trafficked Persons, Case management, Interviewing Techniques Fundamentals, Referral systems and Guidelines for interviewing children.

Participants were awarded with the certificates.

Training was arranged with the financial support of International Labor Organization.