Training seminar “Taking cases to the European Court of Human Rights”

Training seminar [REDACTED] cases to the European Court of Human Rights A was delivered within the framework of joint project [REDACTED] Human Rights Capacity A carried out by Georgian Young Lawyers Association and European Human Rights Advocacy Centre.

Seminar was delivered by Bill Bowring and Philip Leach, practising lawyers specialising in human rights. The seminar was dedicated to the discussion of the procedures for applying to the European court of Human Rights and admissibility as well as to the consideration of various fundamental rights guaranteed by the European Convention.

The seminar was interactive; Therefore, it was possible to deliberate over specific examples characteristic to Georgian reality. Aforementioned seminar was oriented on raising public awareness with regard to the application to the European Court of Human Rights. The result is a qualified lawyer able to select potential cases for submitting before the European Court of Human Rights.
